

The Commanding Officer
takes great pleasure in recognizing

The Information Resources Management Department Naval Hospital Roosevelt Roads, Puerto Rico
as the

2001 AWARD RECIPIENT FOR INFORMATION MANAGEMENT (IM) TEAM OF THE YEAR

Through significant accomplishments, outstanding leadership and highly professional competence, your department has been selected to receive the prestigious Dooling Award. As the Information Resources Management Department (IRMD), Naval Hospital, Roosevelt Roads, Puerto Rico, you have all performed superbly in transitioning the hospital into the 21st Century. Your global perspective and unparalleled expertise has created an Information Resources Management Department that is well positioned to take advantage of future opportunities in Military Medicine.

Your numerous accomplishments have been substantial and have had a positive impact on your Command and Navy Medicine. These accomplishments include, but are not limited to: Implementation of a 50 KVA uninterruptible power supply (UPS) that allows the command's critical systems to remain online during power outages for two hours; the installation of $65,000 worth of repeaters and a $500,000 Cell Site, boosting the cellular signal to the entire base at no cost to the command; the relocation and configuration of more than 350 LAN drops and over 150 phone lines during an on-going renovations; and saving $20,000 in contracting fees by rerouting the command's intercom system through existing phone jacks, phone lines and hubs to the new location. Additionally, you distinguished yourselves by consistently displaying an unsurpassed level of professionalism and dedication through the development of a computerized command muster sheet and acquiring the status of Microsoft Certified Systems Engineers and Professionals. You can be justifiably proud of all your accomplishments.

On behalf of your fellow Information Management professionals of Navy Medicine, I congratulate you on your outstanding achievements in the pursuit of excellence, and congratulate you for a job "WELL DONE!"
